⁹⁶Ibid., "Echoes from Warriors Mark, PA and Surrounding Area by Elizabeth Nearhoof published 1968 page 203 Nearhoof Cemetery which we know as Cross Roads or Spring Mount Cemetery This plot of land set aside for burial of the dead was from the original George and Abram Nearhoof farm, now owned by Mrs. Charles buck. It is just west of Spring Mount on the south side of the Ridge Road, near the home of H. Stuart Taylor. An Indian who lived to be 112 years of age, Christy Van Pool, is buried here. Hugh Wilson tells of the elderly man whose name was Christian Van Pool. Miss Olie Wilson stated this was an Indian name. Mr. Van Pool lived on the ridge in the valley, and he came down and joined in the dancing. He attended the Methodist Church at Center Line (the county road between Huntingdon and Centre Counties). Once while taking Communion from the large cu which the wine was served in and passed from one communer to another, Mr. Van Pool drained the cup and was heard to remark that he was 'more dry than hungry.' Viola Wilson said he was the last native Indian in this community. Margaret Sharer, his wife, a much younger woman, is buried beside him. Although there are 51 Nearhoof's buried here, there are also many other families. About 187 is the number of the graves. There are six Buck stones but the graves are not here. In the early 1960's, these stones were brought from the Buck family cemetery, which was near the stone quarry on the James Clark far. This was done by Lucille Hetrick, Buck historian, of Camp Hill, PA. Families buried here are: Bager, Beck, Bistline, Branstetter, Bratton, Buck, Caraher, Crain, Cox, Denny, Dixon, Dunbar, Emiegh, Gensimore, Griffith, Gurland, Hamer, Hunter, Johnson, Knode, Lehr, Lewis, Miller, Minnick, Nearhoof, Phillips, Robison, Shollenberger, Spanogle, Sullivan, Thompson, VanPool, Vaughn, Weaver, Wilson, Worley, Yingling."

"Democratic Watchman paper of 1/31/1908: Waite - Possibly no other man was so well-known throughout the farming communities of Huntingdon, Centre and Blair counties as Joseph H. Waite, who died at his home at Warriors Mark, Huntingdon Co, on Wednesday morning (1/29/1908) after a brief illness with pleurisy. He was born at Arch Springs, in Blair County, in 1820, so that he was in the eighty-eighth year of his age. When a young man he took up the calling of an auctioneer and this he made his principal life work, and for more than 50 years his voice could be heard every spring selling stock and farm implements at public vendor, so that there was hardly a farmer in the three counties above named who did not know him. He was always regarded the most popular as well as best auctioneer known in this section. His summers were always spent on a small farm he owned near Warriors Mark, and there is where he died. Surviving him are the following children: H. H. Waite Esq., of Huntingdon; A. A. Waite, G. C. Waite, Mrs. J. H. Mattern and Mrs. J. B. Buck, of Warriorsmark; S. B. Waite of Cartersville, Georgia. He also leaves one brother and a sister. The funeral will be held tomorrow (2/1/1908), burial to be made at Warriors Mark. Democratic Watchman Died January 29, 1908. ²³² Ibid., "Echoes from Warriors Mark, PA and Surrounding Area by Elizabeth Nearhoof published 1968 page 203 Nearhoof Cemetery which we know as Cross Roads or Spring Mount Cemetery This plot of land set aside for burial of the dead was from the original George and Abram Nearhoof farm, now owned by Mrs. Charles buck. It is just west of Spring Mount on the south side of the Ridge Road, near the home of H. Stuart Taylor. An Indian who lived to be 112 years of age, Christy Van Pool, is buried here. Hugh Wilson tells of the elderly man whose name was Christian Van Pool. Miss Olie Wilson stated this was an Indian name. Mr. Van Pool lived on the ridge in the valley, and he came down and joined in the dancing. He attended the Methodist Church at Center Line (the county road between Huntingdon and Centre Counties). Once while taking Communion from the large cu which the wine was served in and passed from one communer to another, Mr. Van Pool drained the cup and was heard to remark that he was 'more dry than hungry.' Viola Wilson said he was the last native Indian in this community. Margaret Sharer, his wife, a much younger woman, is buried beside him. Although there are 51 Nearhoof's buried here, there are also many other families. About 187 is the number of the graves. There are six Buck stones but the graves are not here. In the early 1960's, these stones were brought from the Buck family cemetery, which was near the stone quarry on the James Clark far. This was done by Lucille Hetrick, Buck historian, of Camp Hill, PA. Families buried here are: Bager, Beck, Bistline, Branstetter, Bratton, Buck, Caraher, Crain, Cox, Denny, Dixon, Dunbar, Emiegh, Gensimore, Griffith, Gurland, Hamer, Hunter, Johnson, Knode, Lehr, Lewis, Miller, Minnick, Nearhoof, Phillips, Robison, Shollenberger, Spanogle, Sullivan, Thompson, VanPool, Vaughn, Weaver, Wilson, Worley, Yingling.".

She was a daughter of Daniel and Catherine Waite Caraher and was born at Warriorsmark, Huntingdon County, on March 15th, 1839, hence had reached the age of 82 years, 4 months and 16 days. In 1858 she was married to John Kline and most of her life since had been spent in the vicinity of Bellefonte. Some months ago she went to Detroit to visit her children living there and at the time of going made the declaration that it would probably be her last trip. She was the last of a family of eight children. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are five children: Mrs. Ida May Sullivan, of Bellefonte: William and John Kline: Mrs. M.E. Lindsay and M.E. Wion, all of Detroit. Two sons and two daughters preceded her to the grave, but included in her survivors are eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the United Evangelical Church at 2 O'clock on Tuesday afternoon by the pastor Rev. Reed O. Steeley, after with the remains were taken to Curtin for interment. An obituary and photo of the Henrietta (Caraher) Kline was found in the possession of Anne Roth Wion upon her death in Sept. 2005. The obit reads: "The Late Granmother Kline, passing of One of Center County's most Revered Old Residers. 'Grandmother' Kline was one of Center County's revered women of advance years, who died last Sunday morning white on a visit to relatives in Detroit, Mich. Mrs. Kline was in her eighty-second year and had resided in Bellefonte most of her life. She left one daughter, Mrs. Ida Sullivan, with whom she had made her home. her other children reside in Detroit, and Mrs. Kline went to that city on June 6, saying she 'was going out to Detroit to die.' She was in Canada with her children".

He leaves a wife and a large family; age about 56 years." The Bellefonte Republican in its edition of Aug. 15, 1889 said: "At McCoy & Linn's Iron Works, John Kline, an employee, was at work as usual on Thursday (Aug. 8th), apparently quite well. Weary and overheated, he sat for a moment on a wheel barrow when he suddenly fell to the ground, a corpse. The physicians say his death was caused by heart disease. He leaves a wife and a large family to mourn his sudden death. His age was 56 years, one month, and eight days." The Weekly Keystone Gazette in its Aug 16, 1889 paper said: "John Kline, of Milesburg, employed at McCoy & Linn's Iron Works, left his home on Thursday (Aug. 8th) morning apparently in good health. During the day he became over heated and feeling weary he sat down on the handles of a wheel barrow. A few minutes afterward he fell over dead - heart disease. Waite while returning from church service to his home in Altoona Sunday evening shortly after 9 o'clock was stricken with apoplexy. J. C. Hicks and D. Bollinger were with Mr. Waite. They carried him into the home of Charles Wyon where he died in a few minutes. Mr. Waite was born in Tyrone Township on September 20, 1828. He farmed in Sinking Valley a number of years before locating in Altoona where he was an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad company twenty-seven years, being retired from that service about six years ago. He was watchman at the Altoona Trust company building after retiring from the railroad service. On December 12, 1850, Mr. Waite was married to Miss Rachael M. McMillen, who survives him with the following children: Miss Annie at home; Herman S. (Waite) of Bellwood; Mrs. A. B. McLeod of Altoona; Mrs. Patrick O'Hare of Altoona; Mrs. John Nelson of Altoona; Jesse T. (Waite) of Altoona; Norman (Waite) of Altoona. Two brothers, George and Thomas of Tyrone Forges, also survive. Funeral announcement later. Mr. Waite was a member of the First United Brethren church of Altoona; also the Knights Golden Eagle and the Pennsylvania Railroad Relief."

"Obituary for The Tyrone Daily Herald, Tyrone, PA., November 25, 1908 reads: "George Washinton Weight, A Respected Citizen And An Old Soldier Entered Into Rest. On Tuesday morning about ten o'clock, the life of George Washington Weight, one of Seyder township's respected citizens, passed into the eternal world. As he was born and raised in this community he was known as an upright, honest man, who always did unto others as he would have them do unto him. He had always been a strong, robust man and used to hard work. Last Friday he caught a heavy cold which developed into pneumonia and on account of his advanced age he was not able to withstand the disease and death ended his sufferings at the above mentioned time. When the war clouds of the Rebellion hung heavy over our country, he was among the brave boys that went to the front to fight for the flag and country to loved. He placed his life as a sacrifice on the country's altar, but was among the fortunate that escaped the ravages of bullets and shell, although the many hardships that he and many of the old veterans experienced was enough to kill any man. He was a member of Company D, 208th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry (as a private). This regiment was in the Third brigade, Third division and Ninth army corps of the Potomac. He fought at Hatcher's Ran in February, 1865, and was in the attack on Fort Stedman, March 25, 1865. He was also in the fight before Petersburg and was present when that city surrendered to the Union army. His regiment pursued Lee along South Side railroad to Notaway court house and only halted in their march when the news reached them that the brave southern General had surrendered at Appomotox courthouse. Comrade Weight participated in all these engagements and was honorably discharged June 1, 1865, at the close of the war, after which he took part in the grand review in

He had been ill for quite a while with an affection of the lungs and while his death is sincerely lamented, it was not unexpected. Mr. Waite was a member of the Methodist church and had many friends in this place. He was born in Blair county, June 11th, 1835 and was 62 years, 6 months and 8 days old. He was a veteran of the late war (Civil War) having a record in the services of his country which any one might be proud of. He enlisted in August, 1861, and was mustered out in 1865; having served in 16 engagements and 11 skirmishes and was wounded in the second day's fight at Gettysburg. His worth as a soldier is attested by the fact that he entered the army a private and came out a 1st Lieutenant. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Amanda Waite, and seven children, namely: George, John, Robert, Mrs. Richard Winner, Allen Minnie and Clara. All of them reside in Bellefonte except Robert and Mrs. Richard Winner who reside in Anderson, Ind. The funeral took place Wednesday morning at 10:30 from the house. "

"Democratic Watchman paper of 1/31/1908: Waite - Possibly no other man was so well-known throughout the farming communities of Huntingdon, Centre and Blair counties as Joseph H. Waite, who died at his home at Warriors Mark, Huntingdon Co, on Wednesday morning (1/29/1908) after a brief illness with pleurisy. He was born at Arch Springs, in Blair County, in 1820, so that he was in the eighty-eighth year of his age. When a young man he took up the calling of an auctioneer and this he made his principal life work, and for more than 50 years his voice could be heard every spring selling stock and farm implements at public vendor, so that there was hardly a farmer in the three counties above named who did not know him. He was always regarded the most popular as well as best auctioneer known in this section. His summers were always spent on a small farm he owned near Warriors Mark, and there is where he died. Surviving him are the following children: H. H. Waite Esq., of Huntingdon; A. A. Waite, G. C. Waite, Mrs. J. H. Mattern and Mrs. J. B. Buck, of Warriorsmark; S. B. Waite of Cartersville, Georgia. He also leaves one brother and a sister. The funeral will be held tomorrow (2/1/1908), burial to be made at Warriors Mark. Democratic Watchman Died January 29, 1908. Last November she fell and fractured her hip, but the fracture had healed nicely and she had been up and around for some weeks. Monday she ate a hearty dinner and shortly afterwards suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which she died shortly before three o'clock. Deceased was a daughter of John and Susan Eyre and was born in Warriors Mark Valley on March 25th, 1832, hence was 79 years and 7 days old. On March 4th, 1852, she was united in marriage to Henry Waite and the first twelve years of their married life were spent in farming in Huntingdon County. In 1873 Mr. Waite purchased a farm in Halfmoon Township and lived there until his death in 1873. After that Mrs. Waite managed the farm until 1894 when she moved to Bellefonte. She was a member of the United Brethren Church and was a woman who was as upright in her everyday life as she was in precept. Since coming to Bellefonte she has made many warm personal friends, all of whom sincerely mourn her death. She was the mother of eleven children, all of whom survive, as follows: Darius, of this place; John S., of Lock Haven; Mrs. Blair Stevens, of Kermoor; H. B. Waite, on the old homestead; Miss Sarah J., of Wilkinsburg; W. W. of Halfmoon Twp.; Miss Laura A., of East Northfield, Mass.; Harry A., of Altoona; Mrs. James Forcey, of Woodland; J. Edward, of Hazleton, and Miss Ella, at home. Funeral services were held in the United Brethren church at 12:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Waite while returning from church service to his home in Altoona Sunday evening shortly after 9 o'clock was stricken with apoplexy. J. C. Hicks and D. Bollinger were with Mr. Waite. They carried him into the home of Charles Wyon where he died in a few minutes. Mr. Waite was born in Tyrone Township on September 20, 1828. He farmed in Sinking Valley a number of years before locating in Altoona where he was an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad company twenty-seven years, being retired from that service about six years ago. He was watchman at the Altoona Trust company building after retiring from the railroad service. On December 12, 1850, Mr. Waite was married to Miss Rachael M. McMillen, who survives him with the following children: Miss Annie at home; Herman S. (Waite) of Bellwood; Mrs. A. B. McLeod of Altoona; Mrs. Patrick O'Hare of Altoona; Mrs. John Nelson of Altoona; Jesse T. (Waite) of Altoona; Norman (Waite) of Altoona. Two brothers, George and Thomas of Tyrone Forges, also survive. Funeral announcement later. Mr. Waite was a member of the First United Brethren church of Altoona; also the Knights Golden Eagle and the Pennsylvania Railroad Relief."

"Obituary for The Tyrone Daily Herald, Tyrone, PA., November 25, 1908 reads: "George Washinton Weight, A Respected Citizen And An Old Soldier Entered Into Rest. On Tuesday morning about ten o'clock, the life of George Washington Weight, one of Seyder township's respected citizens, passed into the eternal world. As he was born and raised in this community he was known as an upright, honest man, who always did unto others as he would have them do unto him. He had always been a strong, robust man and used to hard work. Last Friday he caught a heavy cold which developed into pneumonia and on account of his advanced age he was not able to withstand the disease and death ended his sufferings at the above mentioned time. When the war clouds of the Rebellion hung heavy over our country, he was among the brave boys that went to the front to fight for the flag and country to loved. He placed his life as a sacrifice on the country's altar, but was among the fortunate that escaped the ravages of bullets and shell, although the many hardships that he and many of the old veterans experienced was enough to kill any man. He was a member of Company D, 208th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry (as a private). This regiment was in the Third brigade, Third division and Ninth army corps of the Potomac. He fought at Hatchers Ran in February, 1865, and was in the attack on Fort Stedman, March 25, 1865. He was also in the fight before Petersburg and was present when that city surrendered to the Union army. His regiment pursued Lee along South Side railroad to Notaway court house and only halted in their march when the news reached them that the brave southern General had surrendered at Appomotox courthouse. Comrade Weight participated in all these engagements and was honorably discharged June 1, 1865, at the close of the war, after which he took part in the grand review in Washington. He returned to his home at Ironsville after the war and followed his occupation, that of a laborer, at ".

He had been ill for quite a while with an affection of the lungs and while his death is sincerely lamented, it was not unexpected. Mr. Waite was a member of the Methodist church and had many friends in this place. He was born in Blair county, June 11th, 1835 and was 62 years, 6 months and 8 days old. He was a veteran of the late war (Civil War) having a record in the services of his country which any one might be proud of. He enlisted in August, 1861, and was mustered out in 1865; having served in 16 engagements and 11 skirmishes and was wounded in the second day's fight at Gettysburg. His worth as a soldier is attested by the fact that he entered the army a private and came out a 1st Lieutenant. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Amanda Waite, and seven children, namely: George, John, Robert, Mrs. Richard Winner, Allen Minnie and Clara. All of them reside in Bellefonte except Robert and Mrs. Richard Winner who reside in Anderson, Ind. The funeral took place Wednesday morning at 10:30 from the house. "

Waite died at his home in Altoona after a year's illness with consumption. His body was brought to the home of his mother, Mrs. Amanda Waite, in this place, on Saturday evening and there funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by his pastor, Rev. Hicks, of Altoona, assisted by Rev. T. W. Perks, of the U.B. church. Interment was made in the Union cemetery. He was born in this place (Bellefonte) October 4th, 1868, and was the third son of the late Adam and Amanda Waite. He was one of a large family of children, all of whom were industrious, estimable citizens, and his death is to be deplored, not only because he was young and diligent and upright but that his is the sixth in the family from consumption. He was a member of the Grace Reformed Church of Altoona and was employed in the Altoona glass factory. He is survived by his wife, who was Julia Graney of Anderson, Ind., his mother, Mrs. Amanda Waite, of Thomas street, three brothers, George, John, and Allen, all of this place, and two sisters, Mrs. Richard Winner and Mrs. Harry Rhoads, both of Altoona." Democratic Watchman of Aug 12, 1898: "Bobby Waite, a son of the late Adam Waite, of this place, who was here for a portion of the summer with his wife, returned to his home at Anderson, Indiana, on Tuesday afternoon. He is a glassworker and has been a resident of Anderson ever since the old factory closed here some years ago.""
