

Descendants of Thomas Waite and Love Brotherton

The line which follows was contributed by Judy Waite and is, I hope, the first of many articles on our cousins who settled in other parts of the world. It details seven generations of descendants from Thomas Waite of Tasmania. My "Waite", Thomas Waite (father) and William Waite (son), came out from England on the "Marmion" directly to Tasmania after having received stolen goods etc. in 1828 and went on to get tickets of leave after seven years. The ship's report states they were from a 'bad family' but were good on board! They later became poor (but honest I hope!) farmers.

1. Thomas¹ Waite, born¹ 1782 in England. He married² on 6 May 1805 in Deddington, Oxford, England Love Brotherton, christened³ 23 Apr 1775 in Deddington, Oxford, England.

Thomas, with his son William, came out from England on the "Marmion" directly to Tasmania after having received stolen goods...in 1828...and went on to get tickets of leave after seven years...the ship's report states they were from a "bad family" but were good on board...later became poor (but honest I hope) farmers... (JUW)

At one time all the Waite's living in Tasmania were directly related to my great, great, great grandfather Thomas.....now there are a few newer families who came from mainland Australia in the 1970's. (JUW)
